Rotary | Rotary Club of Petaluma

The Rotary Club of Petaluma is comprised of about one hundred men and women, leaders in Petaluma's business and professional community who encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise. Our club which was founded in 1923 is involved in many projects both local and international. Examples of the service projects being supported by the Rotary Club of Petaluma are:
• 	Providing a Dictionary to each third-grade student in Petaluma schools.
• 	Giving Holiday gifts to underprivileged children of Petaluma.
• 	Sponsoring Rotary Youth Leadership camps for regional high school students.
• 	Volunteering as tutors in local schools.
• 	Sponsoring & supporting local Scouting and Futures Farmers of America.
• 	Supporting the Petaluma Rotary Foundation, a philanthropic organization that distributes cash grants annually to deserving local organizations and individuals.
All proceeds from this Tournament will support Rotary Youth Programs. Additional sponsorship opportunities available. Thank you for your support.
